

Camping Areas for XIVAMC2007

as at 12 Dec 06

Camping areas have been set aside for those groups that have registered, paid and chosen a site. Clearing consists of removing scrub and small plants as well as low branches on pine trees that would inhibit the use of the area. But you will still need to work around the pine trees on site. While we want everyone to be comfortable and happy, we won't be clearing large clearings to accommodate one or two people in a large Period tent. You'll have to make use of the areas that are available. There are a number of other locations that can accommodate large marquee and double bell tents but the ones on the participant to make use of these locations. Bear in mind that there is nearly over 5 acres (4.6 football fields) of camping space available for 200-250 people, so there is plenty of room for everyone's tents and encampments.
